SAGORA SENIOR LIVING ACQUIRES THE ORCHARD ASSISTED LIVING IN KATY, TEXAS

Texas Company Adds Houston Area Retirement Community to Unique, Growing National Portfolio

FORT WORTH, May 1, 2017 – Sagora Senior Living, one of the nation’s top 50 senior housing operators, expands into South Houston area by acquiring The Orchard Assisted Living & Memory Care of Katy, Texas.

The Orchard at Katy is an established retirement community with 50 assisted living apartments and 40 memory care apartments located at 24802 Kingsland Boulevard in Katy, Texas.

“Sagora Senior Living is honored and excited to invite The Orchard Assisted Living and Memory Care into our family of senior living communities,” said Sagora Senior Living President Bryan McCaleb. “We are unique because we pride ourselves in acknowledging that residents are truly first when it comes to retirement lifestyles and health. This expansion into the Katy area is testimony to Sagora’s undeniable commitment to placing residents in the most respectable and desirable locations we can offer.”

Sagora Senior Living is actively redefining assisted living with a “resident first” philosophy that guides all aspects of the program designs, five-star amenities and socially active cultures within their unique retirement communities in Texas and across the United States.

According to Sagora Vice President of Operations Dara Brown, the Fort Worth based parent company will begin the operational transition of the community effective May 1, 2017.

“We’ve been prepping the best approach to welcoming The Orchard residents into the Sagora Family,” Brown said. “We celebrate Sagora’s core values that resonate with our residents like commitment, communication, empowerment and excellence. We are thrilled to bring our positive culture and family values to the Katy community. We have an excellent, inclusive plan underway to celebrate with our residents, their families and our new associates.”

The Orchard is Sagora’s first community in Katy, the 18th community in Texas, and now part of 28 unique Sagora Senior Living communities across the nation.
